Engineers Day 2021 is celebrated on September 15 of every year, across the country to mark the birthday of Sir Mokshagundam Visvesvaraya. His contributions to the field of engineering and education are significant. Since 1968, India is celebrating Engineers Day on this day every year.

On behalf of department of chemical engineering, we celebrated Engineers Day on 22nd September 2021, afternoon from 2:30 PM to 4:00 PM. We had the session as per schedule.

- The session started with invocation, our Tamizhthai Vaazhthu.
- Dr. S. Karunakaran, Associate Head and Asp/CH, delivered welcome address. He encouraged the students by giving short speech.
- Dr. S. Balasubramanian, HoD/CH, delivered HoD's address. He motivated the students by delivering speech on why Engineers Day is celebrated and his address was very useful for buddy engineers.

- Felicitation address by Dr. S. Ramachandran, he motivated the students and faculty members. He presented an interesting talk on “Competency Model for Engineers”. He covered, impact of engineering, competency model, core competencies, workplace competencies, Industry-wide technical competencies and engineering outcomes.
- We have received feedback from students as very informative and well-coordinated.
- Budding Engineers appreciated and honoured for their achievements in various aspects of curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities.
- Faculty and staff members are also honoured for their achievements.
- Dr. Nitu Kumari delivered vote of thanks.
- We had a wonderful session.
