Event Summary

AIML Vertical of the CSE Department recently organized an Executive Development Programme titled 'Mastering AI Strategy: Leading in the Era of Intelligent Technologies.' The event spanned five days, from 9th October 2023 to 13th October 2023, scheduled between 5:30 PM to 7:30 PM. The online platform for this insightful gathering was Google Meet, ensuring that the knowledge sharing was comprehensive and accessible to a broad audience. The program saw the active involvement of several distinguished individuals. Mr. Premkumar D, Ms. Kiruthika J K, Ms. Janani M, and Dr. Jenifa G, all Assistant Professors in the Computer Science and Engineering department, took on the role of coordinators and resource person, ensuring smooth proceedings. The convenor of this esteemed event was Dr. N Yuvaraj, the Head of the Department for Computer Science and Engineering, who also acted as a resource person. In conclusion, this Executive Development Programme underscored KPR Institute's commitment to staying at the forefront of AI and technology trends, facilitating fruitful discussions, and nurturing future leaders of industries in intelligent technologies. The organized staff members gained so much knowledge during this event.
