Event Summary

The event was organized to have a better insight among the defence aspirants about the various opportunities and eligibility criterias for Engineering students in Armed forces. The event was very fruitful and served its purpose. Guest Lt. Esan from Officers Preparing Academy requested the students to shoot questions and answered according to their pace. It was a surprise that the guest has brought few of the officers who were an alumni of KPRIET through online mode to interact with the cadets and share their experiences. The session was very lively and fruitful
