Event Summary

Sweet Talkerz Club of KPR Institute of Engineering and Technology successfully conducted "Situation Writing" which was one of the major event in the list of events in the activity calendar for 2022-23.

The Event was held on 29.10.22, Saturday at 2.00 PM and the venue was 1st Year AD Classroom in S&H Block. This event was a second major event of SweetTalkerz which included the participation of more than 30.

The Situations (Questions) were framed by and these situations tested the story building and character building skills one should possess as a student and also tested one's imaginative strength. A total of 4 scripts were prepared each of them was based on a different Genres. Genre: Adventure, Romance, Science Fiction, History. The participants were given a choice to select any one of the given situations with a specific genre. As the name suggests the event was all about developing or building up a script out of a chosen situation by the participant. The event started exactly at 2.30PM after the instructions/rules were briefly explained twice by the coordinators. Right before starting, Prof. Brindha Srinivasan, Faculty Coordinator, SweetTalkerz gave a brief note about the event and wished the participants with luck. The participants were provided with A4 papers for writing and the time limit for the event was about 1.30 hrs. Participants developed their situations with great enthusiasm, creativity and patience. They are evaluated on the basis of their content, creativity and vocabulary. The creative writing technique of the students were assessed during the event.
