Outcome*KPRIET Volunteer and Programme Officer Honoured at NSS Award Ceremony in Anna University

KPR Institute of Engineering and Technology (KPRIET) had a moment of pride as a student volunteer and programme officer were recognised for their exceptional contributions at the National Service Scheme (NSS) award ceremony held at Anna University, Chennai. The ceremony celebrated their efforts in the years 2021–2022.

Ms. S. Thanuja, a KPRIET student, received the Best Volunteer in NSS award for her remarkable dedication to community service. Her tireless efforts have had a significant impact on the lives of many people in the community.

Dr. P. Anilkumar, a programme officer at KPRIET, was recognised as the Best Programme Officer in NSS for his exceptional leadership, guidance, and support of NSS volunteers and his best service. His contributions have led to the successful completion of various community service initiatives.

The NSS award ceremony was graced by the presence of dignitaries where the awards were distributed by our Honourable Minister of Youth Welfare and Sports Development, Thiru. Udhayanidhi Stalin, and the Additional Chief Secretary of the Youth Welfare and Sports Development Department, Thiru. Atulya Misra, I.A.S who delivered the special address.

The management, staff, and students of KPRIET congratulated the volunteer and programme officer for their well-deserved awards and expressed their gratitude towards their contributions to the NSS programme.

The awards received by the KPRIET volunteer and programme officer serve as an inspiration for others to continue their community service initiatives. KPRIET is proud of its NSS volunteers and programme officers and looks forward to their continued success in the future.
